REINSTATEMENT ORDER

This matter comes before the court on Calvin E. Holloway, Sr.'s Request for Reinstatement of Membership, dated March 19, 2022, and Remittance of Outstanding Balance for Reinstatement of Membership, dated April 8, 2022. On March 10, 2022, the Supreme Court administratively suspended Holloway for failure to timely register and pay the Guam Bar dues for 2022 despite having be duly notified by the Supreme Court of Guam of his delinquency and given time to comply with the delinquency notice pursuant to Rules 8(c) and 8(f) of the Guam Rules for Lawyer Disciplinary Enforcement and Disability Proceedings ("Rules").

Because Holloway has since made a written request for reinstatement, submitted a current Guam bar registration, paid all arrears at the active annual rate plus all late fees and a penalty of 20 percent of the total amount due from the date of the last payment to the date of the request for reinstatement (payable to the Guam Bar), and paid the $300.00 penalty (payable to the Supreme Court), he is now eligible for reinstatement. See Rules 8(d),(f). Therefore, the court orders that the Suspension Order issued on March 10, 2022, is VACATED and Calvin E. Holloway, Sr., is hereby REINSTATED to the practice of law in Guam. His name shall be placed back on the roll of attorneys effective this date.

SO ORDERED this 20th day of April, 2022.

F. PHILIP CARBULLIDO
Chief Justice
